8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT TACOMA

11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 SKEETER TIMOTHY MANOS,

15 Defendant.

CASE NO. CR12-5091RJB

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S
RENEWED MOTION FOR JUDICIAL RECOMMENDATIO OF CONCURRENT SENTENCE

16 This matter comes before the court on the above-referenced motion (Dkt. 36). The court
17 is familiar with the records and files herein and documents filed in support of and in opposition
18 to the motion. For the following reasons, the motion should be denied.

19 Regardless of the questionable legal authority to modify the court's judgment as set forth
20 in the United States' Response to Defendant's Renewed Motion (Dkt. 37), it appears to the court
21 that, on its merits, the motion should be denied.

22 This court sentenced Mr. Manos to what the court believes is an appropriate sentence.
23 He was then charged with separate state crimes and, in separate state proceedings, he was 24 sentenced by a state judge. That judge declined to make his state sentence concurrent with the

1 federal sentence. For the federal court to now provide that the defendant's state sentence should
2 be served concurrently with the federal sentence would be to, in effect, reverse the state judge's
3 decision. That is not called for and would be a bad practice. The state judge's decision should 4 be given "full faith and credit" in this court.

5 Furthermore, the federal and state prosecutions, though on the same subject matter, were
6 for different crimes, and the sentences should not be served concurrently, unless the judge
7 imposing the second sentence felt that the his sentence should run concurrent with the first
8 sentence imposed.

9 The information provided by the government regarding restitution is not something that
10 the court should now consider in determining the issue at hand.

11 Defendant's Renewed Motion for Judicial Recommendation of Concurrent Sentence
12 should be, and hereby is, DENIED.

13 The Clerk is directed to send uncertified copies of this Order to all counsel of record and 14 to any party appearing pro se at said party's last known address.

15 Dated this 17th day of June, 2013.
